Or you can get a serial number from the publisher and activate the software from there." .Spanish-language newspaper El Diario-La Prensa, the country's largest newspaper, has covered a "sensational" report that the U.S. is using its commercial satellite fleet for domestic surveillance, citing internal documents from the Pentagon's Joint Special Operations Command (JSOC) and a whistleblower. What follows is a short summary of what El Diario—a reporting outlet that regularly gets balanced coverage from the U.S.-backed mainstream media—cites as a bombshell, paired with a link to the original report, which can be found here. El Diario's bombshell is that the U.S. uses its commercial satellite fleet to spy on people: "The Pentagon's Joint Special Operations Command, which carries out the U.S.'s covert operations, mainly in Latin America, has installed powerful surveillance technology and sent personnel to spy on the Mexican territory of Chiapas." The newspaper continues: "The United States is also using commercial satellite systems belonging to the North American Aerospace Defense Command (NORAD) to spy on Mexico. 'Since 2017, many commercial satellites have been used by the U.S. for spying on Mexico, and it is being increasingly used,' the source wrote." El Diario's source writes that the U.S. plans to expand commercial satellite monitoring across Latin America and that the goal is to "monitor everyone in the region." He adds that the U.S. has created a "Central Command for the Special Operations Forces that operate off the coasts" (presumably in reference

Season with salt and pepper. Prepare a hot, seasoned grill. Cook the chicken to an internal temperature of 145 degrees F. Remove from grill and allow to rest for about 5 minutes. In the meantime, make the sauce. Combine all the sauce ingredients. Simmer for 2-3 minutes. Set aside. Drain the chicken and pat dry. Dust the chicken with flour and breadcrumbs. In a large skillet, heat the olive oil over medium heat. Sear the chicken until golden. Turn and sear the other side for about 4-5 minutes or until golden. Remove chicken and set aside. Add the chicken to the sauce remaining in the skillet and reduce heat to medium-low. Continue to simmer for about 10 minutes, or until the sauce has reduced slightly. Check the seasonings and adjust if necessary.
